Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Original 9 1970 - 2020

The Original 9 represented the 9 brave women who broke away from tennis' governing body and risked their careers in the 70's to fight for equality and the right to earn a living. They were suspended from participating in the Grand Slam Tournaments as well as their own national and team tournaments representing their countries as punishment for going against the establishment. Ultimately, the Original 9 triumphed against all odds and were responsible for the start of the women's professional tennis tour known as the Virginia Slims Circuit. The Virginia Slims Circuit became the most successful women's tennis circuit in the world with the highest prize money for women. In 1971 Billie Jean King became the first woman athlete to win $100,000 in a year.

2020 marks 50 years since the Original 9 signed their one dollar bill with promoter Gladys Heldman in Houston at the Houston Racquet Club on September 23, 1970 in defiance of the old establishment. The Original 9 changed the course of women's tennis, and today women enjoy equal prize money in all Grand Slam Tournaments and ATP & WTA events.

Let's celebrate their accomplishments and this year's induction into the Hall of Fame and what evolved from the signing of the $1.00 bill.
